UNITED STATES OF AMERICA)	Criminal No. 1:18-CR- 163 (MAD)

Defendant.)

The United States of America, by and through its counsel of record, the United States Attorney for the Northern District of New York, and defendant Mojtaba Biria (hereinafter “the defendant”), by and through the defendant’s counsel of record, hereby enter into the following plea agreement pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure:

1) The Defendant’s Obligations:

- a) Guilty Plea: The defendant will waive indictment and plead guilty to Count 1 of the Information in Case No. 1:18-CR- 163 (MAD) charging conspiracy to violate the International Emergency Economic Powers Act (IEEPA), 50 U.S.C. § 1705(a), (c), and the Iranian Transactions and Sanctions Regulations (ITSR), 31 C.F.R. Parts 560.203 and 560.204.
- b) Special Assessment: The defendant will pay an assessment of $100 per count of conviction pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3013. The defendant agrees to deliver a check or money order to the Clerk of the Court in the amount of $100, payable to the U.S. District Court, at the time of sentencing.
- c) Compliance with Other Terms of Agreement: The defendant will comply in a timely manner with all of the terms of this plea agreement.

2) The Government's Obligations:

- a) Non-prosecution for other offenses: For so long as the defendant's guilty plea and the sentence remain in effect, the government will not seek other federal criminal charges against the defendant based on conduct described in the information in Case No 1:18-CR-163 (MAD) and/or in the paragraph of this agreement entitled "Factual Basis for Guilty Plea," occurring before the date on which the defendant signs this agreement. This agreement does not prevent the government from seeking charges based on other conduct.
- b) Compliance with Other Terms of Agreement: The government will comply in a timely manner with all of the terms of this plea agreement.

3) Potential Maximum Penalties: The defendant understands that the Court can impose the following maximum penalties for the offense to which the defendant agrees to plead guilty:

- a) Maximum term of imprisonment: 20 years, pursuant to 50 U.S.C. § 1705(c).
- b) Maximum fine: $1 million, pursuant to 50 U.S.C. § 1705(c).
- c) Supervised release term: In addition to imposing any other penalty, the sentencing court may require the defendant to serve a term of supervised release of up to 3 years, to begin after imprisonment. See 18 U.S.C. § 3583(b)(2). A violation of the conditions of supervised release during that time period may result in the defendant being sentenced to an additional term of imprisonment of up to 2 years. See 18 U.S.C. § 3583(e)(3).
- d) Other adverse consequences: Other adverse consequences may result from the defendant's guilty plea as further described in paragraph F below.
- 4) Elements of Offense: The defendant understands that the following are the elements of the offense to which the defendant agrees to plead guilty. The defendant admits that the defendant's conduct satisfies each and every one of these elements.

- a) First, two or more persons willfully conspired to violate the International Emergency Economic Powers Act and U.S. sanctions against Iran by agreeing to knowingly export and re-export items subject to export control regulations, directly or indirectly, to Iran, without the license required for that export;
 - b) Second, the defendant joined that conspiracy, either at its inception or sometime during its existence, knowing the purpose of the conspiracy and intending to help it succeed; and
 - c) Third, one of the members of the conspiracy knowingly committed at least one overt act in order to further some objective of the conspiracy.
- 5) Factual Basis for Guilty Plea: The defendant admits the following facts, that those facts demonstrate the defendant's guilt for the offense to which the defendant is pleading guilty, and that there are no facts establishing a viable defense to that offense:
- a) The defendant is a German citizen, and originally from Iran. At all relevant times he was aware of United States laws and regulations that prohibit the export of gas turbine parts, directly or indirectly, from the United States to Iran, including the prohibition on exporting goods from the United States to a third country (e.g. Germany) if the goods are intended or destined for Iran.
 - b) At all relevant times the defendant was the Technical Managing Director of Energy Republic GmbH ("Energy Republic"), an export company based in Germany. Olaf Tepper ("Tepper"), a German citizen, founded Energy Republic and served as its Managing Director.
 - c) Almost all of Energy Republic's customers were located in Iran.
 - d) "Company A," based in Saratoga County, New York, sold parts for installation and use in gas turbine engines.

- e) Energy Republic was a longtime distributor of goods from Company A. Energy Republic ordered and paid for gas turbine parts, which Company A sent to Germany and which, upon arrival in Germany, Energy Republic then shipped to Iran.
- f) Beginning in or about August 2017, Tepper attempted to arrange for Company A to ship to Energy Republic, in Germany, gas turbine parts valued at approximately $1 million. The defendant and Tepper planned to purchase these United States goods for end users in Iran. Once Company A shipped the turbine parts from the United States to Germany, Energy Republic would immediately re-ship them to customers in Iran.
- g) United States export control laws prohibited the export and re-export of these gas turbine parts to Iran in the absence of a license from the U.S. Office of Foreign Assets Control (OFAC). Neither the defendant nor Tepper nor Energy Republic had an OFAC export license that would have allowed them to export U.S. goods directly or indirectly to Iran.
- h) In October 2017, Tepper sent to “Representative A,” a person working for Company A, several emails and WhatsApp phone messages in which he offered an immediate payment of $300,000 to $400,000 for the gas turbine parts valued at approximately $1 million, with the remaining money to be guaranteed by both Energy Republic and Tepper personally.
- i) On October 26, 2017, at the direction of Tepper, an employee of Energy Republic (hereinafter, “Energy Republic Employee”) sent an email to Representative A titled “Overview contracts / inquiries / repayment [Company A].” Attached to this e-mail was an Excel spreadsheet, which identified multiple contracts, purchase requests and purchase orders between Company A and Energy Republic. One item was described as “2. MS5002D Tabriz.” Tabriz is a city in Iran, in Eastern Azerbaijan Province. Another item was described as “2. MS5002D Krhoye.” MS5002D is a type of dual-shaft gas turbine manufactured by General Electric; Company A sells parts for this turbine.

- j) On October 26, 2017, Tepper and the defendant flew to the United States for the purpose of meeting with Representative A. The following morning, on October 27, 2017, Tepper and the defendant met with Representative A at a hotel in Saratoga Springs, Saratoga County, to discuss the proposed approximately $1 million transaction.
- k) During the meeting, Representative A discussed with Tepper and the defendant the spreadsheet sent the day before by Energy Republic Employee that had the entries “2. MS5002D Tabriz” and “2. MS5002D Krhoye,” as follows:

REPRESENTATIVE A: Now, just so we are clear. You understand the restrictions that I am under.

DEFENDANT: I know, I know.

REPRESENTATIVE A: You have been aware of that so, you see these two lines here?

DEFENDANT: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE A: So that’s, that’s a problem.

DEFENDANT: Why?

REPRESENTATIVE A: I know where those, those, those are located.

DEFENDANT: I know.

REPRESENTATIVE A: I know, so that, you know that’s-

DEFENDANT: Where is the power plant?

REPRESENTATIVE A: Where is the power plant? Tabriz is in-

DEFENDANT: Tehran.

REPRESENTATIVE A: It is in Iran. So I can’t, you know, that’s that’s-

TEPPER: So we have to renew it.

DEFENDANT (to TEPPER): Why he [Energy Republic Employee] is writing the name? Why?

REPRESENTATIVE A: So, but just.

DEFENDANT: Why? I know.

REPRESENTATIVE A: So, OK. You're aware-

TEPPER: So officially we have to stop business on this one, yeah?

DEFENDANT (to TEPPER): Don't write the names-

REPRESENTATIVE A: Right, the the, well, the, you know-

DEFENDANT (to TEPPER): Why is, why is that? He is not supposed to-

REPRESENTATIVE A: We understand that, ah, it goes to Germany or an EU country or non-sanctioned countries.

DEFENDANT (nodding): Yeah.

REPRESENTATIVE A: That's the understanding and that's how we've always worked it.

- l) Later in the conversation on October 27, 2017, Tepper and the defendant returned to the subject of the Excel spreadsheet sent by Energy Republic Employee, as follows:

DEFENDANT: The thing is, if we manage the Frame 5-2 shafts, very good according to the schedule of the end user, OK, then I can ask him to give me second order of this.

REPRESENTATIVE A: Sure, OK.

DEFENDANT: Which is up to 1 million dollar.

REPRESENTATIVE A: That's fine. I was looking at, you know-

DEFENDANT: Because-

REPRESENTATIVE A: This all looks good on paper.

DEFENDANT: Yes.

TEPPER: Except where, where we have these two names of the power stations. This is-

DEFENDANT: They shouldn't-

REPRESENTATIVE A: Yeah I can't-

DEFENDANT: should not write the names of the power stations.

REPRESENTATIVE A: You understand, and everyone's aware of the restrictions.

TEPPER: Yeah, yeah.

DEFENDANT: Why they [Energy Republic Employee] put the name?

TEPPER: But this is, I have the original here.

REPRESENTATIVE A: That's all right, we can just, you know. I want to talk about business that is legitimate and going to places that are not restricted.

m) Later in the day on October 27, 2017, Energy Republic Employee sent an email to Representative A titled "Charts." Attached to this e-mail was an Excel spreadsheet similar to the one that Energy Republic Employee sent to Representative A the day before, except on this newer spreadsheet, "2. MS5002D Tabriz" and "2. MS5002D Krhoye" were each changed to "2. MS5002D," so as to conceal that Iran was the ultimate destination for these MS5002D turbine parts.

n) Also during the October 27, 2017 meeting, the defendant referred to MAPNA, a major power company in Iran, as an ultimate destination of some of the gas turbine parts:

DEFENDANT: You are going to deliver the, your parts for the, MAPNA is ready all of them.

TEPPER: Mr. Biria, he cannot ship to them.

DEFENDANT: Because I am preparing the money for them.

REPRESENTATIVE A: I understand but you know you are talking about situ-, places that I can't ship to.

DEFENDANT: Three shipments, three shipment.

REPRESENTATIVE A: Ok.

TEPPER: Don't, don't mention your end user, ok?

DEFENDANT: OK.

REPRESENTATIVE A: I know. You put me in a a very bad situation. I, I, I can't ship there.

DEFENDANT: No.

REPRESENTATIVE A: I am restricted and I, and just so you know, anything from. There will be paperwork associated with anything that you have to fill out.

DEFENDANT: Yes.

REPRESENTATIVE A: And that's, you know. Restrictions have always been in place as you know.

DEFENDANT: Yes, yes.

REPRESENTATIVE A: And now, it's getting much more restrictive, too, so.

DEFENDANT: Well the question is that if we get the money for the second shipment, your part is ready?

REPRESENTATIVE A: Right, absolutely.

TEPPER: So we are talking about Frame 5 dual shaft?

DEFENDANT: Dual shaft.

REPRESENTATIVE A: Dual shaft.

- o) Throughout the October 27 meeting, Tepper and the defendant told Representative A that they were ready to send $400,000 to Company A, as a down payment for the gas turbine parts worth approximately $1 million.

- p) On October 30, 2017, Tepper emailed to Representative A a Memorandum of Meeting (“Memorandum”), memorializing the agreement discussed at the October 27 meeting, and then reached subsequent to that meeting. The Memorandum, which contained signature blocks for Tepper and Representative A, stated that (a) Energy Republic would provide a company guarantee, backed by Tepper’s personal guarantee; (b) Energy Republic would transfer $400,000 (U.S. currency) to Company A’s account; (c) Company A would confirm, upon receipt of $400,000, that it would ship the following items: “BU1PO468 – DLN fuel nozzle,” “BU1PO898 – 1st shipment of MS5002D order,” and “BU1PO393 – Remaining shipment of 5 sets FR5 (2 X N1 + 1 X B1)”; and (d) the process would be completed by the end of November 2017 at the latest.
- q) On October 30, 2017, Representative A emailed Tepper asking “So when can we expect the payment of $400,000.00 discussed?” Tepper responded, by email that same day, “End of the week, after you have signed the MoM :-),” referring to the Memorandum.
- r) On October 30, 2017, Tepper emailed Representative A an attachment that was the signed guarantee discussed at the October 27 meeting and in the Memorandum.
- s) On November 7, 2017, at Tepper’s direction, Energy Republic Employee sent an email to Representative A that said in pertinent part, “... please find attached the requested MoM [Memorandum] on ER [Energy Republic] letterhead”; this version of the Memorandum was signed by Tepper. Later that same day, Representative A replied via email to Energy Republic Employee and sent a digital copy of the aforementioned Memorandum with Representative A’s digital signature.

- t) On November 15, 2017, in accordance with the Memorandum, and at Tepper's direction, Energy Republic transferred by wire $399,970 to Company A's bank account in the United States.

6) Sentencing Stipulations:

- a) The parties agree that the defendant's base offense level is 26, pursuant to U.S.S.G. §2M5.1(a)(1).
- b) The government will recommend a 2-level downward adjustment to the applicable federal sentencing guidelines offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. §3E1.1(a) if, (i) through the time of sentencing, the government is convinced that the defendant has demonstrated "acceptance of responsibility" for the offense(s) to which the defendant is pleading guilty and all relevant conduct, as defined in U.S.S.G. § 1B1.3; and (ii) the government does not determine that the defendant, after signing this agreement, committed any other federal, state, or local crimes, or engaged in conduct that constitutes "obstruction of justice," as defined in U.S.S.G. §3C1.1.
- c) The government will move for a 1-level downward adjustment to the applicable federal sentencing guidelines offense level pursuant to U.S.S.G. §3E1.1(b) if the government is convinced that the defendant has accepted responsibility within the meaning of U.S.S.G. §3E1.1(a) and further assisted authorities in the investigation or prosecution of the defendant's own misconduct by timely notifying authorities of the defendant's intention to enter a plea of guilty, thereby permitting the government to avoid preparing for trial and permitting the government and the court to allocate their resources efficiently, and the defendant otherwise qualifies for such adjustment by having a combined offense level of 16 or more before receipt of any acceptance of responsibility adjustment under U.S.S.G. §3E1.1(a).

7) Waiver of Rights to Appeal and Collateral Attack: The defendant waives (gives up) any and all rights, including those conferred by 18 U.S.C. § 3742 and/or 28 U.S.C. §§ 2241 and 2255, to appeal and/or to collaterally attack the following (except that the defendant does not waive the right to raise a claim based on alleged ineffective assistance of counsel):

- a) The conviction resulting from the defendant's guilty plea;
- b) Any claim that the statute(s) to which the defendant is pleading guilty is unconstitutional;
- c) Any claim that the admitted conduct does not fall within the scope of the statute;
- d) Any sentence to a term of imprisonment of 78 months or less;
- e) Any sentence to a fine within the maximum permitted by law;
- f) Any sentence to a term of supervised release within the maximum permitted by law;
- g) Any order of forfeiture or restitution imposed by the Court that is consistent with governing law and is not contrary to the terms of this agreement.

Nothing in this appeal waiver is meant to be or should be construed as a representation of or agreement concerning the appropriate sentence in this case.

- A. Right to Counsel: The defendant has a right to assistance of counsel in connection with settlement of this case and understands that right. Defense counsel has advised the defendant of nature of the charges to which the defendant is agreeing to plead guilty and the range of possible sentences.
- B. Waiver of Trial-Related Rights: The defendant has the following additional constitutional rights in connection with the charges in this case: (i) to be presumed innocent until proven guilty beyond a reasonable doubt; (ii) to plead not guilty; (iii) to trial by jury; (iv) to confront, cross-examine, and compel the attendance of witnesses at trial; (v) to present defense evidence; and (vi) to remain silent and be protected against compelled self-incrimination. The defendant understands that by pleading guilty, the defendant waives (gives up) these rights.
- C. Court Not Bound by Plea Agreement: This plea agreement is made pursuant to Rule 11(c)(1)(A) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure. The Court is neither a party to, nor bound by this Plea Agreement. The Court may accept or reject this Plea Agreement or defer a decision until it has considered the Presentence Investigation Report prepared by the United States Probation Office. If the Court rejects the provisions of this agreement permitting the defendant to plead guilty to certain charges in satisfaction of other charges, the Court will permit the defendant to withdraw the plea of guilty before sentencing, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(5) & (d).
- D. Court Not Bound by Agreed-Upon Recommendations, Stipulations, and Requests: If this agreement contains any provisions under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(1)(B) by which the government agrees to recommend, stipulates, or agrees not to oppose the defendant's request, that a particular sentence or sentencing range is appropriate or that a particular provision of the federal sentencing guidelines, or a policy statement, or sentencing factor does or does not apply, such a recommendation, stipulation, or request does not bind the Court, which may make independent factual findings by a preponderance of the evidence and may reject such recommendations, requests, and stipulations between the parties. If the Court rejects one or more recommendations, stipulations, or requests, the defendant is not entitled to withdraw the defendant's plea of guilty and is not released from the obligations described in this agreement. Under such circumstances, the government reserves the right to support and defend, in connection with any post-sentencing proceedings, any decision the Court may make with regard to the defendant's sentence, whether or not such decision is consistent with the government's recommendations, stipulations, or requests set out in this agreement.

E. Sentencing:

- a. Maximum terms of imprisonment: The defendant understands that the Court has discretion to impose a sentence within the statutory maximum sentence(s) set out in this agreement. If the defendant is pleading guilty to multiple charges, the Court may be required by law to have the sentences of imprisonment on the convictions resulting from those charges run consecutively to each other. Otherwise, the Court has discretion to have sentences of imprisonment run concurrently or consecutively. See 18 U.S.C. § 3584.
- b. Mandatory minimum terms of imprisonment: If specified in this agreement, the conviction on one or more charges to which the defendant has agreed to plead guilty may require imposition of a mandatory minimum term of imprisonment. In such cases, the court must impose a term of imprisonment no less than the required mandatory minimum term unless an exception to that requirement applies. Such exception may be dependent on a motion by the government.

- c. Section 851 Enhancements: The defendant understands that if the government has filed an information against the defendant as provided 21 U.S.C. § 851, alleging that the defendant has one or more final convictions for a felony drug offense, and, as part of this agreement, the defendant has admitted and/or affirmed that the defendant was so convicted, then, by pleading guilty, the defendant will lose the right to attack any sentence the court imposes by challenging any such prior conviction.
- d. Sentencing guidelines:
- i. The actual sentence to be imposed upon the defendant is within the discretion of the sentencing Court, subject to the statutory maximum and mandatory minimum penalties, as described above, and the provisions of the Sentencing Reform Act and the United States Sentencing Guidelines promulgated thereunder. While the Court is not bound to impose a sentence within the applicable sentencing guidelines range, it must take into account the sentencing guidelines, along with the other factors set forth in 18 U.S.C. § 3553(a).
 - ii. Any estimate of the defendant's offense level, criminal history category, and sentencing guidelines range provided before sentencing is preliminary and is not binding on the parties to this agreement, the Probation Office, or the Court. Until the Probation Office has fully investigated the defendant's criminal history, it is not possible to predict with certainty the defendant's criminal history category and, in some cases, the defendant's offense level.
 - iii. Under certain circumstances, the defendant's criminal history may affect the defendant's offense level under the federal sentencing guidelines. If the presentence investigation reveals that the defendant's criminal history may support an offense level different than an offense level stipulated in this agreement, the parties are not bound by any such stipulation as to the defendant's offense level and may advocate with respect to how the defendant's criminal history affects the offense level.

- e. Factual findings: The defendant understands that the sentencing Court may make factual findings with respect to any and all sentencing factors and issues, including those referenced in the United States Sentencing Guidelines, whether or not such factors or issues have been admitted by the defendant or stipulated by the parties. In making those findings by a preponderance of the evidence, the Court may consider any reliable evidence, including hearsay. The Defendant understands that the sentence imposed may be determined based upon such judicial fact-finding.
- f. Use of the Defendant's Statements: The defendant understands that the sentencing court may consider any statement that the defendant has made or makes in this Plea Agreement, during the guilty plea, to the Probation Office, and at sentencing when imposing sentence. In addition the government may be able to use the defendant's statements in this agreement and at the guilty plea and at sentencing in any criminal, civil, or administrative proceeding. For example, if the defendant fails to enter a guilty plea (as required by this agreement) or the defendant's guilty plea is later withdrawn or vacated for any reason other than the Court's rejection of this Plea Agreement under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(5), the government may introduce the defendant's statements into evidence in any prosecution. If, however, the Court rejects this Plea Agreement under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(c)(5), and the defendant withdraws the guilty plea pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(d)(2)(A), the government will not be permitted to use any of the defendant's statements in this Plea Agreement. To the extent that Rule 11(f) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure and/or Rule 410 of the Federal Rules of Evidence are inconsistent with this paragraph, the defendant waives (gives up) any protections under those rules.

- g. Government's Discretion to Recommend a Sentence: Unless a stipulation in this agreement explicitly limits the government's discretion with respect to its recommendations at sentencing, this agreement does not prevent the government from urging the sentencing Court to find that a particular offense level, criminal history category, ground for departure, or guidelines range applies; from recommending a specific sentence within the applicable guidelines range as determined by the Court or as urged by the government; or, if the government deems appropriate, recommending that the Court impose a sentence above the applicable guidelines range.
- h. Sentencing-Related Information: The government has the right to advise the sentencing Court and the Probation Office of any information, in aggravation or mitigation of sentencing, whether or not encompassed within the count(s) to which the defendant has agreed to plead guilty, subject only to the limitation described in U.S.S.G. §1B1.8. No stipulation in this plea agreement limits the obligations of both parties to ensure that the sentencing Court has all information pertinent to its determination of an appropriate sentence. The parties may provide any factual information relevant to sentencing to the Probation Office and/or to the Court, without limitation, before or after the completion of the Presentence Investigation Report. The parties agree that the submission of such information shall not be deemed "advocacy" in violation of any stipulation in this plea agreement.
- i. Supervised Release Term and Conditions: If the defendant is placed on supervised release, under some circumstances, including the defendant's violation of one or more supervised release conditions, the Court may extend the term of supervised release, and may modify, reduce, or enlarge the conditions of such release.

F. Other Adverse Consequences: The following are some examples of the adverse consequences of pleading guilty other than the sentence imposed by the Court, along with any judicial order of forfeiture and/or restitution:

- a. Conviction of a felony may result in the loss of civil rights, including, but not limited to, the right to vote and the right to possess firearms.
- b. If the defendant is not a United States citizen, such conviction may result in deportation or removal from the United States, may bar readmission to the United States if the defendant leaves the country, and may result in a denial of a pending or future application for citizenship. Under federal law, removal or deportation may be an almost certain consequence of a conviction for a broad range of federal offenses, including, but not limited to, aggravated felonies, as defined in 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(43), and crimes of moral turpitude, which includes crimes involving fraud. Removal and other immigration consequences are the subject of a separate proceeding. No one, including the defendant's attorney and the Court, can predict with certainty the effect of the conviction resulting from this agreement on the defendant's immigration status. The defendant understands this uncertainty and nonetheless wishes to plead guilty regardless of any immigration consequences that the guilty plea may entail, even if the consequence is the defendant's automatic removal from the United States.
- c. A felony conviction may adversely affect the defendant's ability to hold certain professional licenses and may impair the defendant's ability to do business with federal, state, and local governments or to receive benefits from such governments.

There may be other adverse consequences as well, some of them unforeseeable. It may be difficult or impossible to predict all of the adverse consequences of the defendant's guilty plea. The defendant agrees that any resulting adverse consequences, whether or not foreseen or foreseeable, will not provide a basis for withdrawing from the guilty plea described in this agreement or otherwise challenging the resulting conviction and sentence.

G. Restitution: Independent of any agreement to pay restitution, and whether there is any such agreement, the sentencing Court may be required to order that the defendant pay restitution to any victim of the offense(s) of conviction under the Mandatory Victim Restitution Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3663A. In addition, the sentencing Court may have the authority to order that the defendant pay restitution to any victim of the offense(s) of conviction pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 & 3664. In any case involving a conviction for a sexual exploitation offense in chapter 110 of title 18 of the United States Code, the Court must order restitution for the full amount of the victim's losses as determined by the court. The victim's losses include, but are not limited to medical services related to physical, psychiatric, or psychological care; physical or occupational therapy or rehabilitation; necessary transportation, temporary housing, and child care expenses; lost income; attorney's fees and other costs; and any other losses suffered by the victim as a proximate result of the offense. The restitution payment will be in addition to any other civil or criminal penalty authorized by law.

H. Forfeiture: If the defendant has agreed to forfeiture of assets, the defendant agrees to the following terms and conditions:

- a. The defendant hereby forfeits, to the United States, all right, title, and interest of any nature in any and all assets that are subject to forfeiture, including substitute assets, as set forth above, whether those assets are in the possession or control of the defendant, a nominee, or some other third party.

- b. The defendant consents to the entry of an order of forfeiture of the assets described above.
- c. The defendant is aware that pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(4)(A) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, a preliminary order of forfeiture becomes final as to a given defendant at sentencing or at any time before sentencing if the defendant consents. The defendant consents that the preliminary order of forfeiture in this case shall become final as to the defendant before sentencing, as of the date the preliminary order of forfeiture is entered by the Court. The defendant understands that the government, upon entry of the preliminary order of forfeiture, will address any potential third party claims pursuant to Rule 32.2(c), and seek to finalize forfeiture.
- d. Forfeiture of the defendant's assets will not satisfy all, or any portion of, a fine, restitution, or other monetary penalty that the Court may impose upon the defendant in addition to forfeiture. Satisfaction of all, or any portion of, any restitution, fine, or other penalty that the Court may impose upon the defendant in addition to forfeiture will not satisfy all, or any portion of, any forfeiture judgment ordered by the Court.
- e. In the event that any successful claim is made, by any third party, to the assets described above, the defendant agrees to forfeit substitute assets equal in value to the assets transferred to any such third party. The defendant agrees that forfeiture of substitute assets shall not be deemed an alteration of the Defendant's sentence.
- f. The defendant agrees to cooperate with the United States by taking whatever steps are necessary to pass clear title to the United States of any forfeitable assets, including but not limited to, surrendering title; completing any documents or legal proceedings required to transfer assets to the United States; and taking necessary steps to ensure that assets subject to forfeiture are not sold, disbursed, expended, destroyed, damaged, hidden or otherwise made unavailable for forfeiture or removed beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

- g. The defendant waives the right to a jury trial on the forfeiture of assets. The defendant waives all constitutional, legal, and equitable defenses to the forfeiture of assets, as provided by this agreement, in any proceeding, including but not limited to any jeopardy defense or claim of double jeopardy or any claim or defense under the Eighth Amendment to the United States Constitution, including any claim of an excessive fine.
- h. The defendant acknowledges that the government may institute civil or administrative proceedings against any or all of the defendant's forfeitable assets, including, but not limited to substitute assets and any forfeitable assets not identified by the defendant, and agrees not to contest any such forfeiture proceedings.
- i. The defendant represents and warrants that the defendant has no direct or indirect interest in any property, real or personal, or other asset subject to forfeiture by virtue of this plea agreement, other than those listed above.
- j. In the event the government determines that the defendant has breached any condition of this plea agreement, none of the forfeited property shall be returned to the defendant, nor shall the defendant assert any claim to the forfeited property. The defendant shall not reacquire any forfeited property, directly or indirectly, through family members, nominees, friends, or associates.

I. Determination of Financial Condition and Payment of Interest and Penalties:

- a. In order to facilitate the collection of financial obligations to be imposed in connection with this prosecution, the defendant agrees fully to disclose all assets in which the defendant has any interest or over which the defendant exercises control, directly or indirectly, including those held by a spouse, nominee, or other third party.

- b. The defendant will promptly submit a complete, accurate, and truthful financial statement to the United States Attorney's Office, in a form it provides and as it directs.
- c. The defendant authorizes the United States Attorney's Office to obtain a credit report on the defendant in order to evaluate the defendant's ability to satisfy any financial obligation imposed by the Court.
- d. Interest and penalties may accrue, as a matter of law, on any unpaid financial obligation imposed as part of the defendant's sentence, from as early as the date of sentencing.

J. Remedies for Breach:

- a. Should the government determine that the defendant, after the date the defendant has signed this plea agreement, (i) has committed any further crime or violated any condition of release or supervision imposed by the Court (whether or not charged); (ii) has given false, incomplete, or misleading testimony or information; or (iii) has moved to withdraw the defendant's guilty plea for reasons other than those described in this agreement or otherwise has breached any term or condition of this plea agreement or supplemental agreements with the government, the government will have the right, in its sole discretion, to void this agreement, in whole or in part. In the event of such breach, the defendant will remain obligated to plead guilty and otherwise comply with the terms of this agreement and will not be permitted to withdraw the defendant's guilty plea under this agreement. The defendant will be subject to prosecution for any federal criminal violation of which the government has knowledge, including but not limited to charges that this Office has agreed to dismiss or not to prosecute under this agreement.

- b. If the defendant breaches this agreement, the government will have the following remedies, among others, available to it:
 - i. To bring prosecution for any federal criminal offenses dismissed or not prosecuted under this agreement. The defendant waives (gives up) any defense or objection to the commencement of any such prosecution that is not time-barred by the applicable statute of limitations as of the date on which the defendant signed this plea agreement, notwithstanding the expiration of the statute of limitations between the signing of the agreement and the commencement of any such prosecution.
 - ii. In connection with any such prosecution, any information, statement, and testimony provided by the defendant, and all leads derived therefrom, may be used against the defendant, without limitation and without regard to any rights the defendant may have under Fed. R. Crim. P. 11(f) and Fed. R. Evid. 410.
 - iii. To utilize any information, statement, or testimony provided by the defendant in any proceeding, including at sentencing, notwithstanding U.S.S.G. §1B1.8;
 - iv. To advocate if, and how, any particular adjustment or specific offense characteristic affects the applicable Sentencing Guidelines range without regard to any contrary stipulations contained in this agreement;
 - v. To refrain from making any sentencing-related motion favorable to the defendant without regard to any provision in this agreement obligating the government to consider making or make such motion upon fulfillment of certain conditions;
 - vi. To urge the sentencing Court to take the defendant's breach into account when imposing sentence;

vii. To recommend any sentence the government deems appropriate, even if such recommendation is at odds with any stipulation in this agreement.

K. Limitations: This agreement is between the United States Attorney's Office for the Northern District of New York and the defendant. References to "the government" in this agreement refer only to that Office. This agreement does not bind any other federal, state, or local prosecuting authorities. Furthermore, this agreement does not prohibit the United States, any agency thereof, or any third party from initiating or prosecuting any civil or administrative proceedings directly or indirectly involving the defendant, including, but not limited to, proceedings by the Internal Revenue Service relating to potential civil tax liability, proceedings relating to the forfeiture of assets, and proceedings by the Department of Homeland Security, Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services relating to the immigration status of the defendant.

L. Agreement Must be Signed; Modifications Must be Written or on the Record: This agreement, to become effective, must be signed by all of the parties listed below. No promises, agreements, terms, or conditions other than those set forth in this plea agreement will be effective unless memorialized in writing and signed by all parties or confirmed on the record before the Court.

M. Agreement to Plead Guilty Voluntary: The defendant acknowledges reading each of the provisions of this plea agreement with the assistance of counsel and understands its provisions. The defendant further acknowledges that the defendant's agreement to plead guilty is voluntary and did not result from any force, threat, or promises (other than the promises in this plea agreement and any written supplemental agreements or amendments).
